Adobe K-12 Student Licensing Program eligibility requirements

The following requirements apply to all individuals and K-12 institutions in the United States and Canada that want to participate in the Adobe K-12 Student Licensing Program:

- A school or district must have an existing Adobe CLP licensing agreement for its students, teachers, and staff to be eligible to purchase software under the Adobe K-12 Student Licensing Program.
- To enable its students, teachers, and staff to participate, a school or district also must sign the Adobe K-12 Student Licensing Program Addendum.
- Student purchases are limited to individuals in grades 6-12 at participating CLP schools in the United States and Canada.
- Teachers and staff members at K-12 institutions in the United States and Canada with CLP contracts are eligible for the same prices as students.
- Software purchased under the Adobe K-12 Student Licensing Program is for use on personally owned computers only.
- Validation of eligibility is conducted by the participating Adobe Authorized Education Reseller.
- Actual sales are conducted by the participating Adobe Authorized Education Reseller.

*Prices are valid in the United States and Canada only and are subject to change without notice. Prices are stated in U.S. dollars. Reseller prices may vary. Contact your Adobe Authorized Education Reseller for details. The Adobe Open Options 4.5 K-12 Student Licensing Program is available only to K-12 education institutions in North America that have signed CLP agreements. Under the K-12 Student Licensing Program, each qualified student, teacher, or staff member may purchase only one copy per software title.
